21.5.4 Salary Approval

Except as provided in 23.5.5 and 23.5.6 of this section, salaries for all positions are set by the executive director, upon recommendation of the manager, within the approved ranges and within the total annualized rate of the budget approved for staff salaries calculated using the rates of exchange for salaries paid in currencies other than the U.S. dollar which were in use at the time the budget was adopted. When exceptional circumstances warrant, salaries exceeding the maximum of a position range by up to 15% may be approved, with the concurrence of the president. Any such exception should be reported to the Personnel and Compensation Committee and will normally lead to a revision of the range approved for that position at the next revision of the staffing plan.

21.5.5 Additional Review

Salaries for those staff members who report directly to the executive director will be reviewed by the president to ensure two levels of review. With the exception of the executive director, salaries for staff whose compensation levels require review by the IEEE Compensation Committee (reference IEEE bylaws 313.9) shall be reviewed and approved by the IEEE Computer Society Personnel and Compensation Committee upon recommendation of the executive director.

The Conferences & Tutorials Board is responsible for the general oversight of and setting the society’s role and policy for the society’s meetings in which the society participates, whether defined as conferences, symposia, workshops, and tutorials (excluding chapter tutorials).

6.2. OPERATIONS COMMITTEE

6.2.1 Membership

The Operations Committee consists of the vice chair for operations and at least two Operations Committee members appointed by the vice president for Conferences & Tutorials.

6.2.2 Duties

The Operations Committee shall perform the day-to-day tasks which support the meetings of the society. The Operations Committee provides guidance for the technical meeting committees of the society and establishes methods, tools, and training programs to assist meeting organizers. The Operations Committee participates in the Technical Meeting Request Form approval process. The Operations Committee, with the assistance of the appropriate volunteer services staff member, maintains the IEEE Computer Society’s annual Technical Meeting Handbook. The handbook shall include detailed procedures for the conduct of the technical meetings program. Additionally, the operations committee is responsible for recommending approval of MOUs (6.65).
6.3 ASSESSMENT AND PLANNING COMMITTEE

6.3.1 Membership

The Assessment and Planning Committee consists of the vice chair for assessment and planning and at least two Assessment and Planning Committee members appointed by the vice president for Conferences & Tutorials.

6.3.2 Duties

The Assessment and Planning Committee is responsible for the strategic planning and ongoing assessment of the meetings of the society. The Assessment and Planning Committee assesses the technical and financial viability of meetings and makes recommendations to the Conferences & Tutorials Board regarding potential growth areas for the society's meetings. The Assessment and Planning Committee also reviews steering committee charters and their modifications, and makes recommendations to the Conferences & Tutorials Board on charter approval, meeting termination, or sponsorship changes.

6.4 STEERING COMMITTEES AND CHARTERS

Periodic meetings (meetings held no more than two years apart) shall have a steering committee and a steering committee charter. The steering committee is responsible for the general oversight of and setting policy for a meeting. The steering committee charter shall include meeting scope, committee membership, sponsor financial commitment, and procedures for amendment, withdrawal, and termination.

Steering committee charters for meetings with expense budgets exceeding two percent of the Computer Society’s annual expense budget require Board of Governors approval. All other steering committee charters require approval by the Conferences & Tutorials Board. Meetings that are sponsored by a technical committee need technical committee approval for the initial steering committee charter and any subsequent changes.

The Technical Meeting Handbook shall contain details on steering committees and steering committee charters.

6.4.5 TECHNICAL MEETING REQUEST FORM

To seek the support of the IEEE Computer Society for a meeting, the chair of the meeting, or his designee, and the finance chair, shall complete and sign the Technical Meeting Request Form (TMRF) and should submit it electronically to tmrf@computer.org at least fourteen months prior to the meeting. Appropriate volunteer services staff member, IEEE Computer Society, 1730 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20036-1992. The Technical Meeting Handbook shall provide details about the Technical Meeting Request Form.

6.5 TYPES OF IEEE COMPUTER SOCIETY PARTICIPATION

6.5.1 Sponsorship

The IEEE Computer Society is the sole sponsor of the meeting, accepting all financial and legal liability. All assets, tangible and intangible, shall be the property of the society.

6.5.2 Co-sponsorship
The IEEE Computer Society shares in the financial and legal liabilities according to the percentage of sponsorship as outlined in the MOU or steering committee charter. All assets, tangible and intangible, shall be the property of the sponsors in proportion to their respective share of meeting sponsorship. The financial commitment must be stated in the steering committee charter and on each Technical Meeting Request Form, since advance loans and any surplus or loss must be shared in proportion to the commitment.

6.56.3 Cooperation

The IEEE Computer Society participates in a meeting but accepts no financial or legal liability for the meeting. The Computer Society understands that there are situations in which cooperation is appropriate, and in those circumstances, allows requests for cooperation, but generally requires a closer relationship through sponsorship or co-sponsorship. Only the vice president for Conferences & Tutorials may grant cooperation, in consultation with the appropriate CS TC chair(s) or CS Vice President(s). Cooperation may be granted where there are significant benefits to the Society and its members. The Technical Meeting Handbook shall contain guidelines on technical meeting cooperation.

6.56.4 Sponsoring and Cooperating Entities

The IEEE Computer Society participates in meetings sponsored by other IEEE entities and not-for-profit organizations, as opposed to those sponsored by individuals. The Computer Society may request evidence of incorporation and sufficient liability coverage by the sponsor(s).

6.6 MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MOU)

A memorandum of understanding (MOU), sets forth the relationship and obligations of the involved parties. An MOU is required for all meetings in which two or more entities are co-sponsors. As a minimum, an MOU shall describe the following areas:

- Financial sponsorship of each entity including both liability and surplus distribution.
- Ownership of the intellectual property associated with the conference, including use of the conference name, slogan, copyright for publications, and logo ownership.
- Assignment of conference management and other administrative responsibilities to the appropriate entities.
- General conference management

6.7 REGISTRATION RATES

For all three cases, that is sponsorship, co-sponsorship or cooperation, all IEEE Computer Society members, and all IEEE members, must be entitled to register at the lowest registration rates established for the meeting (except for student rates and other special discounted rates).

Non-member registration fees should be 25 percent to 50 percent higher than fees for members of the sponsoring or cooperating organizations.

All complimentary registrations must be specifically described in the Technical Meeting Request Form.

6.8 APPROVAL OF TECHNICAL MEETINGS

Technical meetings with expense budgets exceeding two percent of IEEE Computer Society’s annual budgeted expenses require Board of Governors’ approval, and those with expense budgets between one and two percent of Computer Society’s annual budgeted expenses require Conference and Tutorials Board approval. Each technical meeting to be sponsored or cosponsored by, or in cooperation with the society, must be approved by one or more appropriate technical committee chairs, as determined by the vice president for Conferences & Tutorials. The vice president for Conferences & Tutorials may waive this requirement.

All other meetings with or without expense budgets require the approval of the vice president for Conferences & Tutorials. The meeting expense budget is the total of all expenses of the meeting, as shown on the latest Technical Meeting Request Form, multiplied by the percent financial commitment of the Computer Society. The Computer Society’s annual budgeted expenses is the amount of the first expense budget approved by the Board of Governors for the current year.

Approval of the first TMRF implies that ownership of the conference name resides with the society and any cosponsors, or as designated in the conference steering committee charter, or in the conference MOU.

6.9 WITHDRAWAL AND TERMINATION

Requests to terminate an IEEE Computer Society technical meeting are normally associated with sponsored meetings. Requests for the Computer Society to withdraw from a meeting are normally associated with cosponsored or cooperation meetings.

6.9.1 Withdrawal

The request to withdraw from the meeting will proceed according to the meeting's charter. If the meeting does not have a charter or the charter does not address withdrawal of the IEEE Computer Society from the meeting, the vice president for Conferences & Tutorials will appoint an ad hoc committee to review the request with the other sponsoring entities and other appropriate parties and develop a recommended set of actions. For meetings with expense budgets less than two percent of the society’s annual budgeted expense, the Conferences & Tutorials Board has the final authority in withdrawing from a technical meeting and implementing recommended actions. For meetings with expense budgets exceeding two percent of the society’s annual budgeted expense, the Board of Governors has the final authority.

6.9.2 Termination

The request to terminate the meeting will proceed according to the meeting's charter. If the meeting does not have a charter or the charter does not address termination of the meeting, the Assessment and Planning Committee will review the request with appropriate parties and develop a set of actions. For meetings with expense budgets less than two percent of the society’s annual budgeted expense, the Conference and Tutorials Board has the final authority in terminating a meeting and implementing recommended actions. For meetings with expense budgets greater than two percent of the society’s annual expense budget, the Board of Governors has the final authority.

After receiving written approval of the TMRF, meeting organizers of sponsored and cosponsored meetings must use the name and logo of the IEEE Computer Society and the logo of the IEEE on all meeting material including announcements, and calls for papers, etc. If stationery is printed for the meeting, it should have the IEEE Computer Society name and logo, and the IEEE logo on it.

Before written approval is obtained, the name and logo may not be used in any fashion; however, annual technical meetings may, after the first year they are approved by the IEEE Computer Society, publish an advance announcement of the next meeting provided that they notify the appropriate volunteer services staff member at least 30 days prior to the date when the announcement may be withdrawn from publication, and no Computer Society objection is received.

6.11 TITLE

Wherever a meeting is solely sponsored by IEEE entities, its title should include IEEE for identification purposes.

"International" may be used in the title of the meeting only when the meeting will reflect an international character to a significant degree.

6.12 SCOPE

For first time meetings, the scope must be defined in the TMRF. For continuing meetings, any changes in scope must be noted in the TMRF for the year(s) when the change applies and must be submitted to the Conferences and Tutorials Board for approval.

6.13 STEERING COMMITTEES AND CHARTERS

Steering committee charters are submitted to the Conferences & Tutorials Board. Charts for meetings that are sponsored by a technical committee are also reviewed by the sponsoring technical committee.

6.143 MEETING ORGANIZING COMMITTEES

6.143.1 Meeting Committee Purpose Composition

Organizing committee members of a meeting must be chosen from at least three different employers. No more than three may come from the same employer unless approved by the vice president for Conferences & Tutorials.

6.143.2 Meeting Chair

The meeting chair has primary responsibility for all aspects of the meeting and is accountable to the steering committee and the sponsors with respect to the discharge of that responsibility.

6.143.3 Finance Chair

The finance chair is responsible for all financial aspects of the meeting including preparing the budget, approving expenditures, maintaining proper financial records, seeing that the approved registration fees are charged, preparing the final report, etc. The primary aim of the finance chair should be to stay within the approved budget; note that the approved budget might not be the same as that submitted, since the sponsors might request changes.
Only the finance chair and the meeting chair should be authorized to approve expenditures. The meeting chair may delegate this authority for specific areas to other committee members and to the appropriate volunteer services staff member.

6.154 MEETING FINANCES

6.154.1 Advance

An advance loan must be repaid no later than when the final report is filed; it is not part of the meeting income.

6.154.2 Checking Financial Accounts and Other Accounts

The finance chair is responsible for all income and expenses, and for oversight of the financial accounts. The Technical Meeting Handbook shall contain information on maintenance of the financial accounts and on checking account alternatives.

In all cases, the chief staff executive or his/her designee must have access to any financial account. This may be waived, if an authorized executive of one of the other an equal or majority co-sponsors has such access.

For all meetings with expense budgets greater than $50,000, and unless requested otherwise by the IEEE Computer Society, the finance chair should provide to the appropriate volunteer services staff member and to the meeting chair, monthly financial reports that are usually prepared, especially during the six months preceding the meeting. The appropriate volunteer services staff member will provide to the finance chair and the general chair monthly reports for the co-sponsors, if any.

6.154.3 Final Report

The meeting chair is responsible for seeing that a final report is prepared within four months after the meeting. This includes an administrative report on the meeting, a financial report, the closing of the checking and other accounts, and distribution of funds, performance of an audit, if requested, and reporting of capital equipment purchases. The report must be sent to the appropriate volunteer services staff member with a complimentary copy to co-sponsors, if any. The vice president for Conferences & Tutorialsvolunteer services staff is responsible for approving the final report on behalf of the IEEE Computer Society. The Technical Meeting Handbook shall contain detailed information on the final report.

The vice president of Conferences and Tutorials chair of the Operations Committee or his/her designee will be notified if a final report becomes more than four months delinquent. The delinquent report will be pursued by the volunteer services staff vice chair for operations or his/her designee.

6.154.4 Financial Audits

The IEEE Computer Society may request an audit to be performed either informally by a small committee, perhaps a subset of the meeting committee, or a professional auditor. Technical meetings with at least 50% society sponsorship and having total revenues greater than $50,000 shall be audited on a periodic basis. Each year the society shall engage a professional auditor to perform at least three audits of meetings with at least 50% society sponsorship and total revenues of $50,000. Technical meetings which designate the appropriate volunteer services staff member as the treasurer and have revenues and expenses managed by the society shall be audited as part of the society's annual audit. Technical meetings having total expenses greater than 1.5% of the total.
Computer Society expense budget will be required to budget for audits. Other technical meetings may be required to budget for audits at the option of the Conferences & Tutorials Board. The Conferences & Tutorials Board Operations Committee shall provide guidelines for the external audits in the Technical Meeting Handbook.

The finance chair must retain all records for a period of at least three years for return receipt; this includes all canceled checks, account statements, registration forms, bills, receipts, account books, and so forth.

6.15.5 Non-Financial Audits

The Conferences & Tutorials Board Operations Committee may conduct audits of the conference technical program and review process based on the technical audit procedures approved by the Conferences & Tutorials Board.

6.15.6.6 Capital Equipment

Capital equipment purchases over $1,500 require advance approval from the chief staff executive of the IEEE Computer Society or his/her designee. The Technical Meeting Handbook shall provide details on capital equipment purchase procedures.

6.165 MEETING CONTRACTS

6.165.1 Hotel Contract

The hotel contract can be negotiated by the local arrangements chair, but must be signed either by the chief staff executive or his/her designee, or the Computer Society may refuse to accept liability. In the case of a meeting cosponsored by the Computer Society, the Computer Society will accept the signature of an executive of a cosponsor.

6.165.2 Exhibit Contract

The exhibit contract must be signed either by the chief staff executive or his/her designee, or the Computer Society may refuse to accept liability. In the case of a meeting cosponsored by the Computer Society, the Computer Society will accept the signature of an executive of a cosponsor.

6.165.3 Other Contracts

For meetings sponsored solely by the Computer Society, any contract over $25,000 or 10% of the total meeting expense, or any contract where the potential liability to the IEEE or IEEE Computer Society exceeds $25,000 (for example a bus or transportation contract) must be signed either by the chief staff executive or his/her designee, or the Computer Society may refuse to accept liability. In the case of a meeting cosponsored by the Computer Society, the Computer Society will accept the signature of an authorized executive of a cosponsor. Agreements for incidental meeting expenses such as copier rental, audio-visual equipment or other small equipment rental will not require signature by the chief staff executive unless the contract is over $20,000.

6.176 HONORARIUM

6.176.1 Conference Speaker Honorarium

Honoraria are not normally paid for conference speakers. If honorarium are deemed necessary, they must be specifically noted and justified in the proposed budget for approval.
6.176.2 Tutorial Speaker Honorarium

Each year, the Operations Committee recommends the rates for full-day and half-day tutorial speakers. The rates must be approved by the Conferences & Tutorials Board and published in the Technical Meeting Handbook. Full travel expenses can be paid for tutorial speakers.

6.187 COPYRIGHTS

The IEEE Computer Society requires that original papers in the proceedings of meetings it sponsors, cosponsors, or cooperates in be copyrighted for the protection of the authors, their organizations, and the sponsoring societies and cooperating entities. Assignment by the authors usually is made to IEEE on a standard copyright form. In those instances where the copyright may be held by an entity other than an IEEE entity, the holding entity should agree in writing that there will be free and unencumbered access and reuse rights to those papers published in the proceedings, by all sponsors, cosponsors, and cooperating entities, provided that:

1. The original copyright holder is informed of the reuse/republishing by the sponsor or cosponsor, or cooperating entity;

2. That standard acknowledgment and credit lines appear on the first page of the reused republished paper;

3. That the sponsor/cosponsor/cooperating entity is not acting as a third party on behalf of another non-related commercial or non-commercial organization wishing to reprint/reuse the paper; and

4. That written permission is secured from the primary author of the paper in advance of the proposed reuse.

(Note: section to come regarding electronic publications.)

6.198 INQUIRIES BY GOVERNMENT AGENCIES

If any government agency raises questions about technology transfer or clearance, particularly about the proceedings or the conduct of the meeting, and the meeting is sponsored or cosponsored by the IEEE Computer Society, the matter must be referred to the one of the following IEEE Computer Society individuals must be contacted before any response is given or action is taken: the appropriate volunteer services staff member, the chief staff executive or his/her designee for resolution, the vice president for Conferences & Tutorials, or the president.

6.2019 TECHNICAL MEETING MAILING AND ATTENDEE LISTS

Provisions must be made to protect the right of a meeting attendee not to have his/her name on mailing lists used for the dissemination of non-society-related material and for attendee distribution lists. The following statement, therefore, must be placed on all meeting registration forms: Do not include my mailing address on { } non-society mailing lists { } meeting attendee lists.

6.21 IEEE MEMBER PARTICIPATION

All IEEE members shall be admitted, upon payment of appropriate registration fees, to any and all meetings and events of which the society is a sponsor or cosponsor. Space limitations may require a policy of first come, first served. The society will not act as a sponsor or cosponsor for any assemblage in which participation is subject to security clearance or any other restriction of either governmental or industrial nature.

6.220 NON-DISCRIMINATION

The IEEE Computer Society will not approve of holding a Computer Society-sponsored meeting in a facility of an organization which engages in discriminating membership practices or in any facility to which all IEEE members do not normally have access.

6.231 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

6.23.1 No conference committee member (steering committee, conference committee, or program committee) shall have any financial interest, directly or indirectly, in any contract relating to the operation of that conference nor in any contract for furnishing supplies or services thereto without the specific approval of the chief staff executive of the society.

6.23.2 Except as noted in 6.21.1, IEEE Computer Society-sponsored technical meeting organizers are governed by the IEEE Policies and Procedures in regards to conflict of interest. Guidelines on disclosure of conflict of interest by technical meeting organizers are contained in the Technical Meeting Handbook.
