IEEE Computer Society members and customers attend our one-hour webinars to hear our experts speak about the hottest topics. Our gurus offer a rare glimpse into their technical areas of expertise. Our previous attendees have included CIOs/CTOs, VP/Directors, systems and software engineers, and computer scientists working at the top organizations.

Previous topics include:

- ✓ The State of the Cloud in the Enterprise
- ✓ Continuous Verification and Validation of Critical Software
- ✓ How to Manage Open Source Risk Within Your Application Security Program
- ✓ The Year Ahead in Cybersecurity
